Dear Mr. Kovalchikk,

I am deeply disturbed to see you are moving forward with this debacle of a project for Guilderland and immediately surrounding area families! How in good conscience can the town of Guilderland believe that placing a huge Costco retail store and hundreds of dwellings in an already congested area will benefit anyone? The current driving congestion in and around that area is frustrating, not to mention getting more and more dangerous.

Though I am not a resident of Guilderland, the decision to continue this project to completion will force me to visit and shop elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Helbling
