Dear Guilderland Town Board Members,

I grew up in Latham and Albany and have spend many a day walking or snowshoeing around the Pine Bush. I find it to be such a calming and restorative experience, one that has made me a better, more grounded person. The world desperately needs more of these spaces, not less. I see and hear the Pine Bush being slowly gobbled up by more houses and stores and it breaks my heart. Please do anything you can to stop this from happening as our children and their children may no longer have green spaces to enjoy like many of us take for granted today. Change starts at home. Save the Pinebush! More importantly, I ask that the Guilderland Comprehensive Plan include that all of the remaining privately-owned land in the Pine Bush be acquired by the Town of Guilderland and
